

Climb

Free climbing is demanding and dangerous. With no safety rope, if you fall, you die. Climbers need skill, courage and agility. High-performance climbing requires high-performance equipment and chlorine (Cl) plays its part in the manufacture of polyurethane for tough, lightweight flexible climbing shoes. For more information on the many applications of chlorine, visit www.eurochlor.org

Chlorine – an essential element of life